

Planting a tree for the Jubilee

Cornus Kousa Chinensis

To mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee the Arlington Association will be planting a tree in Arlington Square. The Woodland Trust is encouraging the nation to plant 6 million trees during 2012. We will plant a Cornus Kousa Chinensis which is a particularly lovely tree. Planting will take place at the next Community Gardening Day on Saturday, 5th May.

